LOOKING UP EVIDENCE
AGAINST BURGLAR NICHOLAS.

Police Trying to Fix Various Breaks in This Vicinity on Him.

Since the arrest of William Nicholas in New London, suspected of burglaries in that city, there have been no burglaries, and while this is not evidence that may be used against Nicholas, it has caused the state police to resume their investigation. Nicholas is in jail for vagrancy. The Norwich police want him when his term is finished for burglary at the store of C. S. Fairclough.
Before that time residents of Lyme will be asked to identify Nicholas as the man seen under incriminating circumstances in that town.

Persons who saw a man attempting to commit a burglary in New London a few months ago, Nicholas' arrest could not identify him as the would-be burglar, but some of them are confident he is the same man since hearing of the evidence against him. State police expect to have sufficient evidence against Nicholas before the September term of the superior court to arrest him on more charges than the Norwich burglary.

Hail Storm Breaks Much Glass in Westerly—Funeral

The following are extracts from the Bulletin of August 1864:
Aug. 8.—Major Henry Pease and Capt. J. H. Morrison, Eighteenth regiment, arrived home Sunday morning.
Capt. James J. McCord, Thirtieth regiment has purchased a house and lot in Franklin street of Dr. William P. Estlin for $10,000.

Fall Into Bath of Oil.
At Luce Brothers Oil Works in East Lyme two young men, A. J. Daniels and Thomas Stanton were scuffling and both fell into a vat of hot oil.
They were immediately taken away but it is thought neither of them will recover.

Two substitutes and two volunteers were accepted at the Provost General's office on Saturday.
Aug. 8.—A heavy hail storm provoked in Westerly Sunday, smashing seventy or more panes of glass in the factory there and many in private residences.

The Norwich Brass band plays in front of the Old Library.
Small and W. E. Whaley advertise that they are prepared to furnish substitutes desirous of procuring them. Their office is over the Provost Marshal's office. These gentlemen have facilities for procuring men that make it worth while for those desirous of avoiding the draft to call upon them.

Col. Joseph H. Nickerson of this city is now in command of the Eleventh Connecticut Volunteers.
The Jewett City Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent. (free of government tax) now payable at the services held in St.
Mary's church.

Four volunteers and three substitutes were accepted at the Provost Marshal's office on Monday.
Sword For General Tyler.
General Robert O. Tyler's friends in Hartford have subscribed $500 with which to get him a sword.

Funeral of General Stedman.
The funeral of the late General Stedman is to be attended at New London some day this week. The remains were expected at New York Tuesday, but a despatch from Col.
Almy yesterday morning stated that their arrival was delayed by a collision on the Philadelphia and Baltimore R.
R. The Hartford Press says that A. J.
Gen. Morse has tendered a military escort at the funeral and it accepted by the family friends of General Stedman, the Hartford City Guard and Norwich Light Guard will probably be ordered out, and the troops at Fort Trumbull invited to the funeral, giving military honors to the deceased.

Worse Than They Are Now!
Young America hereabouts is getting to be an unmitigated nuisance.
It is notorious that in many parts of our city, no age or sex is safe. A female, can walk peaceably along the street without being taunted and reviled by small boys from six and seven years old and upwards, who have already learned how to smoke, drink and swear, and often a string of oaths is followed by stones hurled against the innocent passer-by, and even in Main street ladies are grossly insulted nearly every evening.

The Eternal Feminine!
The weather again hot and dry.
Many of our citizens are weary of their families for various reasons, and up-country watering places in the hope of enjoying a breath of cool air. But the young ladies are generally selecting sea-side resorts, while the boys are going north, hunting and fishing, leaving to the other sex sea side flirtations with

New Gas Tank for City.
A new gasometer has just been completed by the Norwich Gas Company at their works near the Eagle Armory.
It was four weeks in the making

A Corporation Not Without a Soul.
The Shetucket Company have commenced running their cotton mills on half time, but pay their employers for their quarters time. The General Esq. of this city is treasurer and business manager of this corporation, that is not without a soul.
The trustees are G. H. Alford of

The funeral of Capt. F. S. Long, Twenty-first regiment takes place in Williamstown this afternoon.

1913 LEGISLATIVE CLUB HELD ITS REUNION.
Had Attendance of 236—Senator Avery
On Executive Committee.

Senator Charles S. Avery of Norwich is a member of the executive committee of the 1913 club of the legislature which met in all its glory at Momaugon, on the shore outside of New Haven on Wednesday. As the Hartford Times found things there were present by actual count 246 former legislators, former and present state officers, those who have remote hopes of attaining state distinction, and those who are declared just stepping across the portals of that happy arena wherein one is permitted to refuse to his name and to draw a monthly check from the state treasury.

By precept and tradition politics were supposed to have been fore-sworn for the day. Yet, when Charles W. Comstock so busy and Colonel Robert O. Easton so prominent? However, it was about as difficult to discover what the little knots of guests were discussing, as to interpret what the waves were saying. It was not hard to believe that the United States senate and senior Baldwin and Congressman Mahan were exploited by the partisans of these two democratic possibilities for the United States senate, and that Judge Henney's and Senator Lips. Governor Baldwin was not Brandegee's names were on some present. Mr. Mahan, it was said, was in Washington. Comptroller of the head of what might be called the head table, although it was not apparent that the arrangement had been made with an idea creating such a post of vantage. Treasurer Roberts was the only other state official of the present in attendance.
"Souvenir" Taylor found divertisement from the practical vocation of caring for the material wants of the diners in the avocation of distributing badges and a cleverly executed pin, heart-shaped, but blue in color, emblematic of the sinking hearts of the republican cohorts as they view the havoc to be created by democrats and bull moose in the fall, so said a more facetious than sympathetic observer.

Governed by Same Principle.
Mr. Roosevelt would be just as likely to respect a confidential letter as a Tammany district leader would be to refuse a campaign contribution.
New York World.

One Runaway Started Another.
Staple's watering cart horses ran away with their cart yesterday, causing much trouble to the driver, and with the ice cart and exciting a general commotion.

Largest Bid by Norwich Savings
Society.
The largest bid for the new State house of $3,000,000 was made by the Norwich Savings Society of this city.
They take $500,000 at par.
A beauty of a green turtle was on exhibition at the Apollo saloon on Wednesday. It was just from Cuba and bound to Mystic Island, where the guests at the Nanyang will enjoy it in steaks, soups, etc.

The steamboat train from New York via New London met with an accident at the junction near Worcester, Thursday morning, owing to the displacement of a switch. The engine was thrown down an embankment, but the coupling breaking, the cars remained on the track.

A Little Treachery Toward the Chronicle.
The New London Chronicle is getting to be an "incendiary sheet". The Hartford Times says its political articles are scorchers. We suggest that the name of the periodical be changed to New London Scorchers, and the office removed farther away from the river. The Thames river is important to the city of New London, and no insurance company will take a visitor on it so long as that office is near enough to set it afire.

Norwich Soldier Gets Appointment.
George E. Dorrance of Company "I," Eighteenth regiment, who has been detailed as clerk for the surgeons in charge of St. John's College Hospital at Annapolis has received an appointment in the Adjutant General's office in Washington.

been so employed for some nine weeks prior thereto, and had also on previous occasions been employed by said town. On the third day of July, 1914, while in said employment, working on the highway, said Emilie Hennequin, in lifting some heavy stones, received an injury, said injury being in the nature of a strain, about 10 o'clock in the forenoon. With difficulty he continued to work until about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when he was finally forced to give up work. Said Emilie Henne-quin was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Williamstown on July 3, at which hospital he died on July 5.

From the facts as brought out in the testimony given at the hearing on the case, it would appear that Emilie Hennequin died of a rupture of the appendix, which resulted in appendicitis. The testimony given tends to show that this young man strained himself while lifting a stone and the result proved fatal.

Of course, it might be argued that there was a pre-existing condition present which might have been aggravated by the strain in lifting the stone, but there seems to be no doubt that trauma and strain are causes for appendicitis, and are so recognized by medical authority.

It is evident that the strain was the contributing and proximate cause, and that the rupture of the appendix.
Whether or not there was some pre-existing inflammatory condition or some adhesion to a question which is problematical, but one which should not invalidate the claim made, as there seems to be no doubt that, if this strain had not occurred at the time and he had been in some other employment, such a fatal result would never have occurred.

There seems to be no history of a previous attack of appendicitis, or history of any illness of any kind brought out at the hearing; the only thing the boy ever had was nosebleeds as stated by his mother.

BRINGS SUIT AGAINST
THREE INSURANCE COMPANIES Another Chapter in Fire Troubles of Nathan Pomerantz of New London.

Three new cases returnable before the superior court in September were filed on Friday at the office of Clerk George E. Parsons. They are all brought by Nathan Pomerantz of New London to collect insurance on stock lost by fire. The first case is against the Merchants and Traders Insurance Co. of New Orleans, and the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Co. of Manchester, N. H.

This makes another chapter in the troubles of Mr. Pomerantz through the fire.
He has been accused of setting fire to the building, the case now pending in the superior court. Mr. Pomerantz denies the accusation and has furnished bonds for his appearance for trial.

TRYING TO HAVE
REPLEVIN BOND INCREASED
Jack Gardner Alleges Pacer Tommy K. Is Worth Much More Than $500.

Another chapter in the story of Tommy K., the crack racing horse, which Mrs. Blanche Farrington, through the agency of Sheriff Tubbs, replevined from Jack Gardner at Mystic on Thursday, was unfolded when Justice Max Boyer in New London Friday afternoon. Attorney George Curtis Morgan appeared for Gardner in a petition to have the amount of the replevin bond which had been furnished by Attorney Richard P. Freeman, counsel for Mrs. Farrington, substantially raised.

According to law the bond in such cases must be twice the value of the property involved and in this instance it was placed at $1,000, the pacer having been worth $500. Subsequently it was added by Gardner that the pacer was worth a sum much in excess of $500 and Justice Boyer was asked to raise the bond to an amount which, in the opinion of Gardner's counsel, would protect his interests.

P. H. O'Brien, a barber, testified that his client, the pacer, was worth from $1,500 to $2,000. A Mr. Blumenthal, a racing expert, also placed the value of the animal at a figure approximate to that of Mr. O'Brien. Dr.
C. E. Bitgood, Fred J. West and Thomas Howe did not consider the horse worth more than the original estimate. They placed its value at $350 to $400. Justice Boyer reserved his decision as to increasing the bond.

A shaft hanger in Mill No. 2 gave ment. When the hanger gave way the shafting crashed to the floor and smashed two pulleys; otherwise there was not much damage. No one happened to be near enough to get hurt, but it caused a scare among the employees near the break.

The Bear Cats are scheduled to play

Big Day for Ball Team.
Today is the day that the baseball enthusiasts of the village have been looking forward to for the last week or two. Baltic, the village's old rivals in all kinds of sports, are booked to appear on the Providence street grounds to compete in the second game of the championship series.

This game is sure to be a battle royal, as both teams are out for this game. Manager Benoit reports that the grounds are in excellent condition and that his men are anxious to get into the fray and are confident of mak-they did last week at Baltic.
